DETAILED ACTION

1. In view of the Appeal Brief filed on 14 November 2005, PROSECUTION IS HEREBY REOPENED. New grounds of rejection are set forth below.

To avoid abandonment of the application, appellant must exercise one of the following two options:

(1) file a reply under 37 CFR 1.111 (if this Office action is non-final) or a reply under 37 CFR 1.113 (if this Office action is final); or,

(2) initiate a new appeal by filing a notice of appeal under 37 CFR 41.31 followed by an appeal brief under 37 CFR 41.37. The previously paid notice of appeal fee and appeal brief fee can be applied to the new appeal. If, however, the appeal fees set forth in 37 CFR 41.20 have been increased since they were previously paid, then appellant must pay the difference between the increased fees and the amount previously paid.

A Supervisory Patent Examiner (SPE) has approved of reopening prosecution by signing below:

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

2. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

Art Unit: 3611

3. Claims 7, 9, 11 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Harms.

It is noted that claims 7-13 only positively recite a wheel. The wheelchair is only recited as an intended use work object. “[i]nclusion of material or article worked upon by a structure being claimed does not impart patentability to the claims.” In re Young, 75 F.2d 966, 25 USPQ 69 (CCPA 1935) (as restated in In re Otto, 312 F.2d 937, 136 USPQ 458, 459 (CCPA 1963)). See MPEP 2115. There is no positive recitation of a connection to a wheelchair. Claim 9 only recites limitations on the work object.

Harms discloses a tire comprising:

a tire carcass 12, and a running profile 30 extending annularly around the carcass, wherein the running profile is asymmetrically disposed with respect to a tire carcass center plane;

wherein the running profile is symmetrically configured (about the center axis of the wheel) and arranged laterally offset with respect to the center plane by a predetermined offset angle.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

4. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

Art Unit: 3611

5. Claims 12-13 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Harms in view of French.

Harms discloses the claimed invention except for a low friction coating disposed on the portions configured to be smooth.

It is known in the art, as taught by French (col. 1 lines 39-52) to add a low friction coating to a tire sidewall in order to reduce heat generation and abrasion.

It would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to modify Harms by adding a low friction coating to the tire in order to reduce heat generation and abrasion.

Allowable Subject Matter

6. Claims 14-23 are allowed.

Response to Arguments

7. Applicant's arguments, see the Appeal Brief pages 6-12, filed 14 November 2005, with respect to claims 14-23 have been fully considered and are persuasive. The rejection of claims 14-23 has been withdrawn.

8. Applicant's arguments with respect to claims 7-13 have been considered but are moot in view of the new ground(s) of rejection.
